Kingfisher Promotes Talent from Within

CHARLOTTE, N.C., Sept. 6, 2013 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ -- Kingfisher Capital, an independent, money management and advisory firm, is pleased to announce the promotion of Chad Frk to Director. Mr. Frk, now with the nationally recognized, Charlotte-based investment firm for nearly two years, has been instrumental in adding structure, discipline, and scale to the firm's expanding institutional relationships with TD Ameritrade, Inc. ("TDA") and SunTrust Investment Services, Inc. ("STIS"). Mr. Frk brings energy and a wealth of experience from similar roles with JPMorgan Chase & Co. and Northern Trust Co. Most recently, at JP Morgan, Chad covered high-net-worth business owners in the greater Chicago area and served to educate existing clients, while monitoring managed portfolios for its over $3 billion in assets.

In his expanded role, Chad will also be working directly with key individual and family accounts to deliver the firm's integrated wealth management capabilities. Managing Partner, HK Hallett said of his new Director, "Chad is a detail oriented, smart, and disciplined person --- but more than that --- people just love working with him because he is steady, caring and accountable. His engaging personality seems to make everyone feel comfortable, no matter their level of financial sophistication."

Among his many engagements within the investment community, the civically minded Frk is also involved in the firm's charitable efforts, currently supporting the Light the Night Walk for cancer research. Mr. Frk says, "I think it's important for members of the corporate community to support causes that touch so many of our lives."

Kingfisher Capital works directly with private clients as well as advisors, consultants and other institutional, to provide comprehensive investment and wealth management. Over the last decade, Kingfisher has developed thought leadership in identifying important trends in the global economy that are impacting investment decision-making around the world. Its strategies are widely available. Please contact the firm directly to learn how Kingfisher can work with you and support your business.
